

MARIO MASINI

Date of birth: 1945

Nationality: Italian

Current position: Secretary General, CICA (Confederation Internationale du Credit Agricole)

Mario Masini has studied economics and business administration at Bocconi University (Milano), The American University (Washington D.C.) and the Harvard Business School.

He is full professor , Economics of Financial Institutions, and member of the faculty board of the doctoral program at the University of Bergamo. He is also senior lecturer at SDA Universita Bocconi in Milano.

He is chairman of the Italian Association of Professors in the Economics of Financial Markets and Institutions (ADEIMF).

Research focuses on management of financial institutions (performance management and control). Areas of special interest are financial development and rural finance (has worked with FAO, IBRD, U.N.EC.A., USAID).

He is member of the board of directors of banks and other financial intermediaries.