

SOME Gilbert KOMBOUOLSAN is a specialist in financing and strategic management of banks and financial institutions.

He was the principal technical adviser and in charge of charge of the Microfinance programme in Sao Tome a khorogho in Ivory coast.

He has been able to put in place different diagnostic methodologies, development business plan, Evaluation reports and memoranda for privatization of public institutions

Attended several supervision missions at the BOAD (Banque Ouest Africaine de Développement) and has been part of the team that has put in place the microfinance programme in Burkina Faso.

Has also participated in a number of international seminars on development issues and financial systems.

Has a wide experience in the methods of training agents of all categories and conducted several projects initiated by the European Union (EU), UNDP and other internationals donors

Mr. SOME Gilbert, is currently a General Manager at BACB (Banque Agricole et Commerciale du Burkina). He has been coordinating the programme on micro, small and medium enterprises since 2006